ROUND TABLE CONFERENCE (LONDON, 1930)

Supplementary Memorandum on the Claims of the Depressed Classes

Submitted by Dr. B. R. Ambedkar and Rao Bahadur R. Srinivasan

SECTION I: SPECIAL REPRESENTATION IN LEGISLATURES

Adequate representation in the Central and Provincial Legislatures is the primary political guarantee required to ensure socia
The Depressed Classes must be granted adult suffrage and separate electorates or reserved seats in proportion to their popula
Without political power and legislative representation, social injustice cannot be dismantled by executive discretion alone.

SECTION II: EDUCATIONAL ENDOWMENTS AND RECRUITMENT

It is essential that statutory obligations be placed upon the Government of India to provide adequate budgetary allocations fo

Recruitment to all public services, civil and military, must be opened without discrimination.
A Public Service Commission guarantee must ensure fair representation in institutional administration.